

Interview Topics of Interest

The Florida Association of Mortgage Brokers (FAMB) is a terrific interview resource to use for mortgage related issues. Our members are ethical professionals who maintain involvement in their Association and their community to further their knowledge and abilities to best serve Florida consumers.

Our members are also involved in committees, which address pertinent issues facing mortgage brokers, and the consumers we serve. As such, please consider our Association as a resource for your next mortgage story.

FAMB can easily provide spokespeople for the following topics:

- Predatory Lending
- Mortgage and REPSA Reform
- Refinancing
- Credit Scoring
- Best Lending Practices
- Education
- State and national legislative initiatives
- Affordable Housing
- FHA/VA
- Licensing of brokers
- Technology
- General mortgage information and tips for homeowners
- Reverse mortgages
- Option ARMS
- Florida insurance and property tax issues
- Credit Bureau Opt-Out

Please contact Brent Roberts or Brooke Highline at 847-729-7333 to schedule interviews with the Florida Association of Mortgage Brokers President Ritch Workman, CRMS.
